CONFERENCES

A photograph of a restaurant interior. The space is filled with tables and chairs, some of which are set with plates and glasses. A prominent feature is a long, curved booth with a red velvet-like upholstery. The ceiling is high and features a complex, ornate design with exposed wooden beams and several large, white, spherical pendant lights. In the background, a bar area is visible with a glass-fronted display. The overall atmosphere is warm and sophisticated.
